Privacy notice for governors, trustees and other volunteers

Under data protection law, individuals have a right to be informed about how The Keys Academy Trust uses any personal data we hold about them. We comply with this right by providing 'privacy notices' (sometimes called 'fair processing notices') to individuals where we are processing their personal data.

This privacy notice explains how we collect, store and use personal data about individuals working with the schools or the trust in a voluntary capacity, including governors and trustees.

The Keys Academy Trust (c/o Earley St Peter's C of E Primary School, Church Road, Earley, Reading, RG6 1EY) are the 'data controller' for the purposes of data protection law.

Our data protection officer is Ben Cain (see 'Contact us' below).

The personal data we hold

We process data relating to those volunteering at our School/Trust. Personal data that we may collect, use, store and share (when appropriate) about you includes, but is not restricted to:

- Contact details

- Information about business and pecuniary interests

We may also collect, store and use information about you that falls into "special categories" of more sensitive personal data. This may include information about (where applicable):

- Race, ethnicity, religious beliefs, sexual orientation and political opinions
- Disability and access requirements

We may also collect information such as IP addresses, device identifiers, and criminal record information where required for safeguarding or legal compliance.

Why we use this data

The purpose of processing this data is to support the School/Trust to:

- Establish and maintain effective governance

Our lawful basis for using this data

We only collect and use personal information about you when the law allows us to. Most commonly, we use it where we need to:

- Comply with a legal obligation
- Carry out a task in the public interest

Less commonly, we may also use personal information about you where:

- You have given us consent to use it in a certain way
- We need to protect your vital interests (or someone else's interests)

We have legitimate interests in processing the data – for example, where:

- clerking service providers require information to coordinate meetings and distribute information
- a centralised IT system is used for the coordination of governance activities (e.g. GovernorHub)
- training providers require information to coordinate training sessions and distribute information
- relevant associations require information to be able to distribute relevant information
- directly to trustees and governors (e.g. National Governance Association)

Where you have provided us with consent to use your data, you may withdraw this consent at any time. We will make this clear when requesting your consent, and explain how you go about withdrawing consent if you wish to do so.

Some of the reasons listed above for collecting and using personal information about you overlap, and there may be several grounds which justify our use of your data.

Collecting this information

While the majority of the information we collect from you is mandatory, there is some information that you can choose whether or not to provide to us.

Whenever we seek to collect information from you, we make it clear whether you must provide this information (and if so, what the possible consequences are of not complying), or whether you have a choice.
